

A Private Crusade

A surprisingly steamy romance from deep in the dark ages! A Private Crusade gives you a shocking intense glimpse at what the people had to endure, to live and love a thousand years ago. Sir Andre had gone to the crusades, after the death of his young wife and child, eager to forget his pain. Returning after six long years, on the road home to his native Toulouse, an odd voice calls him to turn aside, and go elsewhere. That elsewhere proves to be the realm of Duke Alaire, a wicked and oppressive ruler, who has little kindness or decency. His heir is even worse, so terrible that the youngest son has taken vows at the neighboring monastery to avoid their evil. Sir Andre decides to stay, hoping to do something good for the serfs and commoners, without having definite plans. Life in the castle is surprisingly challenging, as hes pursued by the Dukes neglected young wife, Marie, flirted with constantly by the Dukes youngest daughter Katerine, and plotted against by the heir, Claren. Finding himself smitten with Katerine, who lacks only a few months of being of age, her contrariness proves even more vexing than Clarens constant plotting to kill him! A rich and sexy tale of historic romance, that will amuse you at one moment, and make you cry the next. Another masterful tale of emotion and desire.
