

Should I Have an Abortion?: Our loving Gods answers to your questions on unplanned pregnancy, abortion, and your unborn baby

Should I have an abortion? This is a question every woman should carefully consider within the context of her entire life and future before entering the abortion clinic or popping an abortion pill. An unplanned pregnancy can be an emotional, traumatic event in a woman's life. But crisis pregnancy is also a short season that can result in lifelong, life-altering outcomes. Abortion is not just a medical procedure. It is not a choice to be made flippantly. A woman in crisis pregnancy needs a broader perspective when making the decision to abort or not without the advice of the longstanding ProChoice vs. ProLife debate. She needs to cautiously consider what this unplanned pregnancy and its future consequences will have on her whole life intimately. This book will give women another perspective. In the end, the only opinion that ultimately matters is of the God who created the whole universe and all the people in it. The goal of this book is to help women in crisis pregnancy privately, confidentially consider the life issues surrounding this private, personal decision without interference from the world. I am here to help women who've already aborted receive forgiveness and healing. In any event, a woman does not need anyone but God directing her in what to do in her own life. If she feels pressured to abort her unborn baby by other people and does not feel strong enough to resist, she should just take a moment to think about how an abortion will affect her life, emotional stability, and future alone. She cannot be under any sort of pressure in making an informed conclusion. Taking time to breathe and read this book will help a woman work through the issues surrounding crisis pregnancy. Ultimately, she is the only one who will live with her decision. It is no one else's decision. So, curl up on a comfy couch with this book and relax. Let's walk through the issues at hand and see what the Almighty God, the Creator and Sustainer of all life, has to say about your unplanned pregnancy, abortion, your unborn baby, and you. Yes. He has a lot of loving things to say about you, too! We do not have to travel any road alone, including a crisis pregnancy. We can invite our heavenly Father-Gods love for us into any situation. Through His guidance and mercy, a woman can make the right choice for her unborn baby and her life. Asking God for wisdom and help to do the next right thing is how we begin. This book aims at shining the light of Gods truth on unplanned pregnancy, abortion, and your unborn baby. Lets begin the journey towards answering this most important question.
