The Wannsee Conferences were headed by at least the first one by the first hand selected representative of Himmler, Reinhard Heydrich. The Tabernacle of Adam Systems were a primary subject, as the device used to transfer the soul essence of the Undesirables from their Human Sacrifice to the desired outcome eg a WMD. As well as a likely lost Death Camp in Colorado Springs, Colorado. A nastier and more distasteful man is difficult to find in history. But he was chosen by Himmler to partially find out how lethal Adolfs reaction was going to be. If Heydrich was killed shortly after, than that would tell Himmler how dangerous the entire situation was. Heydrich went into the conferences knowing he was going to be killed within a few years. The Wannsee Conferences were literally the organizational structure to form a coup detat to topple the existing third Reich and reinstall a better close to the Thule Society government in its place. One of the topics discussed was the facts of operation Valkyrie. If von Stauffenberg had simply done it job and made absolutely sure the bomb was either directly next to or handed it to Adolf a second before the explosion. Most of the subject of this conference would have not need to be hidden. The Conferences were not about the killing for no reason, other than the mythical fiction of the purity of the Aryan Race. Pure delusional fiction, but that was what was placed in the books and records to show the events of that conference would be acceptable to the rest of the Gestapo and the cabinet of the Third Reich. But the conferences were about trying to figure how to make the Tabernacle of Adam Systems the Third Reich possessed work, without the key players EST lobotomizing themselves. Which had been a serious problem for the previous several decades. And in France, the American South, etc. several centuries. 1000 people who had encounter the Systems in a variety of different places had mostly lobotomized themselves through the inappropriate use of Electricity. To much voltage can kill a grouping of cells, that grouping can turn necrotic and over time kill the person. Hence the one and only realistic reason Alexander the Great died, he EST Lobotomized himself and rotted from the inside out from being electrocuted. The Tabernacle of Adam Systems trying to find out what they were, how to turn them on, how to fuel them e.g. human sacrifice the undesirables in the third Reich to turn each persons 6 grams into electricity to power the systems. Making the Gas Chambers infinity worse by a factor, and those actions were about as bad as they could be previous to this theory. The gas chambers were not about simply killing people, they were about using stolen Tesla equipment and patents to turn humans into electricity to Wi-Fi sent said electricity to the Systems. The Dirty Dozen, Great Escapes, and Monument Men were all part of this finding the Systems and turning them off. On the TV documentary show Digging for the Truth at Lake Tanna in Ethiopia hosted by Josh Bernstein, there is an island in the middle of the lake. That island is claimed to have been a refuge for both a Tabernacle of Adam System and still contains a several millennia old library with ceremonial garb which some of it looks like a personal Tesla Cage to redirect electricity from killing the wearer. The priests in charge of guarding and protecting the library state a series of structures were on the Island for centuries before being moved again south when an invading army came too close. About Eight separate buildings each one about 80 feet tall were reported to have been part of the Ark of the Covenant. Those buildings and the ark were dismantled and taken south. That library contains hard physical evidence of both the Tabernacle of Adam Systems and of course the clothing needed to protect the self from electrocution.
