

Change of Life - Life Changing!: What really happens during Menopause

So we already cope with the fundamentals of life with balancing a family, a career and running a household, now we add Menopause to the list! From mood swings and hot flushes to night sweats and our depleting sex drives, Menopause, affects all women. The question is, how do we get through it? Change of Life - Life Changing, takes a personal insight on the challenges of Menopause, the impact on our everyday life, our families and our sense of womanhood. Surely embracing Menopause should be easy compared to what we have already experienced, like having families, raising teenagers, separation or divorce? Well you would think so, but having to tackle body changes on a daily basis, continually over several years and maintain balance in the rest of our lives is certainly going to be far from easy. As difficult as it sounds and how daunting it may seem, we know Menopause will be an eye opening experience and whatever it throws in our wake, we will definitely be up for the challenge!
